- The program must maintain enrollment sufficient to meet its expenses and payroll and that if it does not, the program will cease to operate.
- There will NO program on days the school is closed because of bad weather and if the school closed early because of inclement weather.
- Tuition is based on 180 days and is broken into 10 monthly payments. There is NO proration of fees if your child starts in the middle of the month. The fees for November, December, April or June are not prorated since the fees are based on the 180 days. There is NO extra charge for scheduled half days.
- Children will be signed out of the program by authorized adults (18 or older).
- In the event my child is sick I will call my child's after school site phone and leave a detailed message that includes my child's full name and what date he/she will not be attending.
- In the event my child will be going home as a walker or on the bus, I will fill out the appropriate bus/walker form from the www.oldbridge.com website. I will follow all directions listed on the website with regards to this form. In addition I will call the after school site phone with a detailed message that includes my child's full name and date he/she will not be attending.
- Parents/guardians will notify the After School Main office by emailing AfterSchool@oldbridge.com of any home, work, cell phone and email changes.
